

Location

- Adult only club based at the Bianconi carpark in Killorglin and registered with Canoeing Ireland

Activities

- White water and flat water paddling
- Surf kayaking
- Sea kayaking

Courses

- Beginners courses run for a period of 6 weeks from April to the beginning of October every Wednesday evening from 6pm – 8:30pm leading to a Level II certification in kayaking Undertaken on the River Laune and includes a pool session
- River Safety Rescue courses, RSR1/2 for club members that have attained the Level II certification
- Level III certification training for club members that have attained the Level II certification

Club trips

- Fortnightly club trips on a Sunday throughout the year to one of the local rivers, lakes or beaches meeting at the Bianconi carpark in Killorglin at 9am

Club Fees

- Beginners course fee is €100 and includes annual club membership fee, annual Canoeing Ireland fee, club T-shirt, tuition and access to the use of the club equipment (kayaks, spray deck, buoyancy aid, cag and paddle)
- Annual membership fee is €60 for members that have previous/current experience and do not need to undertake the beginners course. Includes annual club membership fee, annual Canoeing Ireland fee and access to the use of the club equipment (kayaks, spray deck, buoyancy aid, cag and paddle)
- Extra charges for pool sessions and River Safety Rescue courses

Find us at:-

www.kerrycanoecub.com

<https://www.facebook.com/kerrycanoecub>

Location

- Adult only club based at the Bianconi carpark in Killorglin and registered with Canoeing Ireland

Activities

- White water and flat water paddling
- Surf kayaking
- Sea kayaking

Courses

- Beginners courses run for a period of 6 weeks from April to the beginning of October every Wednesday evening from 6pm – 8:30pm leading to a Level II certification in kayaking Undertaken on the River Laune and includes a pool session
- River Safety Rescue courses, RSR1/2 for club members that have attained the Level II certification
- Level III certification training for club members that have attained the Level II certification

Club trips

- Fortnightly club trips on a Sunday throughout the year to one of the local rivers, lakes or beaches meeting at the Bianconi carpark in Killorglin at 9am

Club Fees

- Beginners course fee is €100 and includes annual club membership fee, annual Canoeing Ireland fee, club T-shirt, tuition and access to the use of the club equipment (kayaks, spray deck, buoyancy aid, cag and paddle)
- Annual membership fee is €60 for members that have previous/current experience and do not need to undertake the beginners course. Includes annual club membership fee, annual Canoeing Ireland fee and access to the use of the club equipment (kayaks, spray deck, buoyancy aid, cag and paddle)
- Extra charges for pool sessions and River Safety Rescue courses

Find us at:-

www.kerrycanoecub.com

<https://www.facebook.com/kerrycanoecub>